IMPORTANT

This agreement contains the terms and obligations of the Tenancy. It sets out the undertakings made by the Landlord to the Tenant and by the Tenant to the Landlord. These undertakings will be legally binding once the agreement has been signed by both Parties and then dated. You should read it carefully to ensure it contains everything you want and nothing that you are not prepared to agree to. Whilst every attempt has been made to compose this agreement using plain and intelligible language, it inevitably contains some legal terms or references

1.1 In this Agreement the following definitions apply:

BACS Bank Automated Credit System

Binding Date a Tenancy Agreement is not, technically, a legally binding contract until it has been 'executed' by being Dated after both Parties (or their authorised representatives) have signed: although it might be possible for either party to take legal action against the other if they withdraw prior to this date.

Commencement Date means the date specified in Schedule 1 and the day the Tenancy commences.

Council Tax means the tax introduced by the Local Government Finance Act 1992 or any other replacement tax or charge levied by the local authority on the occupier and/or the Premises.

Deposit means the amount specified in Schedule 1.

Deposit held as Agent for the Landlord where this applies this means that at the end of the Tenancy the Agent will be legally bound to pass to the Landlord all the amounts which the Landlord instructs should be deducted in accordance with this agreement.

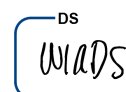

Expiry Date means the date specified in Schedule 1 or the termination of any extension or continuation or any statutory periodic tenancy which arises thereafter.

Insured Risks means fire, storm, tempest or other perils recognised as such by a reputable Insurer.

Inventory and Schedule of Condition means any document prepared by the Landlord, the Landlord's Agent or an Inventory company and provided to the Tenant detailing the Landlord's fixtures, fittings, furnishings, equipment etc., the decor and condition of the Premises generally.

This document will be relied upon at the end of the Tenancy to assess damage or compensation for damage (over and above fair wear and tear) and so should be checked carefully at the commencement of the Tenancy. Any significant mistakes, misdescriptions or other amendments should be notified to the Landlord or the Landlord's Agent as soon as practicable after the Tenancy starts. Where the document is provided by the Landlord's Agent this notification should be done using the Inventory Comments form provided with the document.

Joint and Several means that jointly the Tenants are liable for the payment of all Rents and all liabilities falling upon the Tenants during the Tenancy as well as any breach of the Agreement. Individually each Tenant is responsible for payment of all Rent and all liabilities falling upon the Tenant as well as any breach of the Agreement until all payments have been made in full. A maximum of four people can be such joint Tenants.

Landlord means the Landlord specified in the schedule and includes any successors in title to the Landlord and any person lawfully claiming under or through him/her.

Permitted Occupier(s) means the person(s) set out in Schedule 1 who is/are a person(s) licensed by the Landlord to reside at the Premises for the duration of the Tenancy.

Parties means the Landlord and Tenant(s).

Premises means the residential property set out in Schedule 1.

Remedial Work means any work required to the Premises in order to return the Premises to the condition they were in at the Commencement Date including but not restricted to the reasonable costs of any damage caused or cleaning required.

3.3 The Deposit shall be held by the Landlord or the Landlord's Agent as set out in Schedule 1 and no interest will be paid on this Deposit.

3.3.1 Where the Deposit is held by the Landlord's Agent, it is held as Agent for the Landlord and the tenancy is included in the Tenancy Deposit Scheme for Regulated Agents (TDSRA), but subject to Clauses 3.3.1.1 to 3.3.1.5 below.

3.3.1.1 Where the tenancy is included in the Tenancy Deposit Scheme for Regulated Agents (TDSRA). The landlord and/or tenant must endeavour to notify the Member Firm that there is a dispute over the deposit, as soon as possible and within 28 days of the lawful end of the tenancy and the vacation of the property (it is strongly recommended that such notification be given in writing). The Independent Case Examiner (ICE) reserves the right to decline to consider disputes which have arisen outside this timescale.

All parties agree to co-operate with his investigation. The deposit shall not be released until the adjudication has taken place.

3.3.1.5 The statutory rights of either landlord or tenant to take legal action against the other remain unaffected.

3.4 If at any time during the Tenancy the amount held in respect of the Deposit is less than the sum stated in Schedule 1, the Landlord or the Landlord's Agent may require the Tenant to pay such amount as is required to increase the amount of the Deposit accordingly. The Tenant shall pay any such amount within 14 days of written demand.

3.5 At the end of the Term and before returning the Deposit the Landlord or the Landlord's Agent on the instruction of the Landlord shall, but subject to 3.3.1.1 to 3.3.1.5 above, first be entitled to deduct from the Deposit all such Rent, monies, loss, expenses and sums as are due under this Agreement. The reason for the nature of these deductions will be notified to the Tenant in writing. Such correspondence will be sent, addressed to the Tenant, to the address required to be provided by the Tenant under clause 3.99 of this agreement.

After this time the Landlord or the Landlord's Agent can dispose of such property. In such circumstances the Tenant shall be liable to pay to the Landlord or the Landlord's Agent:

3.8.1 the reasonable costs incurred by the Landlord or the Landlord's Agent in storing, removing or disposing of such property,
