

There are seven properties on the same side of the road along Pelican Street who have extensions with pitched roofs that match the existing roof ridge. Here are some examples