

Tree Information

A Tree survey will not be required as no proposed building works are not within any tree root protection or will affect any trees within the area of the garden.

The existing vegetation is made up of large shrubs and the only tree is on the existing rear boundary line.