

Tree Information

In terms of trees, I believe the proposed works fall far enough away from the tree line to the south not to impact the trees and therefore a survey should not be required.